If objection is to material other than a book, change the wording on the following questions so they apply. If more space is required, attach pages as needed.

Did you read the entire book? Which parts?

To what in the book do you object? Please be specific, cite pages.

What do you feel might be the result of reading this book?

For what age group would you recommend this book?

Is there anything good about the book?

Are you aware of the judgement of this book by literary critics?

What do you believe is the theme of the book?

What would you like the library to do about this book?

- Do not lend it to my child.
- Withdraw it from all readers as well as my child.
- Re-evaluate its suitability for the collection.
- Other: _____

In its place, what book of equal literary quality would you recommend that would convey as valuable a picture and perspective of the subject treated?
